Jacob and Esau Reconcile
Genesis 32:32 - 33:17

As you colour this picture, answer these questions:

1. What is happening between Jacob and Esau?
2. Is there anyone you need to forgive? Or to say sorry to someone?
3. Write a prayer to Jesus for forgiving you for your sins

Things to think about, discuss, and pray through this week:

Why was Esau's response to Jacob surprising? How might you have responded to Jacob if you were Esau?

Can you remember being forgiven by someone, which made a real impact on you? How is Jesus' forgiveness to us even greater? Is this still making an impact on you?

Are you currently enjoying a relationship with God, rather than simply forgiveness from him? How might you begin to enjoy God again?

In what ways can our church have a 'ministry of reconciliation'? (2 Corinthians 5:18)

Are there still people that you're struggling to forgive? What might reconciliation look like in this relationship?
