

List three things that you associate with freedom

List three things that you think limit your freedom

Moses led the Hebrews out of Egypt. In what ways had God been preparing him for that task?

The Hebrews were released from slavery to the Egyptians, but were soon arguing and complaining. But they had been set free by God. What is different about the freedom God offers to that which others might offer?

This week, take some time to think about ...

- Is there anything that I am enslaved to? Ask God to release you from it and to know His freedom in your life.
- What is most important to me? Do my priorities line up with what God wants me to be and do?
- What do I spend most of my time and effort doing? What would Jesus do?
