No Growth Groups this week...

...But you might want to reflect on these questions or meet up with a friend to talk and pray these things through

1. His salvation work is finished (Hebrews 10:11-14)

How can we be sure that Jesus' work to save us is finished?

When are you tempted to believe that Jesus' death and resurrection is not enough for your life?

2. His kingly position is powerful (Ephesians 1:17-23)

What exactly does Jesus rule over?

Does his physical absence affect his ability to rule everything in our lives?

How reassuring is it that Jesus is using his power for the good of his church?

3. His eternal impact is valuable (Colossians 3:1-4)

What is significant about Christians' lives being "hidden with Christ in God"?

Why and how do we "set our hearts" and "minds on things above"?

From the three passages above, what greater confidence do you have that Jesus is at the right hand of the Father?
