

Jesus is preparing a place in heaven for us
(John 14:1-7)

“Father, I want those you have given me to be with me where I am, and to see my glory, the glory you have given me because you loved me before the creation of the world.”
(John 17:24)

My Father’s house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. John 14:2–3 (NIV)

Questions for our Growth Groups on Tuesdays & personal reflection

Read John 17:24.

Where would you most like to be right now?

Where does Jesus most want us to be? Why does he want this for us?

Why can this world never truly satisfy us?

Read John 14:1-7.

What is comforting about heaven being described as the “Father’s house”?

What is astounding about the fact that Jesus is right now preparing a place in the Father’s house for us? So how do we get there??

What did Steve Jobs come to realise about what is not of real value in life?
Where did his understanding still fall short?

Read Revelation 21:1-5.

What are some of amazing features of the new heaven and new earth?

Why is closeness to God the key to true happiness (see Psalm 16:11)?

Why is this promise “trustworthy and true”?

Now, where would you most like to be right now??

From our mini-series: “Where is Jesus now?”

- What has most struck you?
- What has most encouraged you?
- What has caused you to be more determined to trust Jesus?